MICROCOSM PUBLISHING is an independent publisher and distributor based in Portland, OR and Lansing, KS. We distribute ideas through zines, books, pamphlets, stickers, buttons, patches, t-shirts, posters, films, and more! Our titles attempt to teach DIY self-empowerment and show hidden history while nurturing people's creative side. We began in 1996 with one person doing part-time mail order out of a bedroom.

Team Kansas features Jessie, Adam, and Danielle. Team Portland features Joe, Rio, and Matt. Nate manages our website out of Chicago.

Some titles are sold on a sliding scale. Like a museum, pay what you can afford and what it's worth to you within that scale. If it says $3-5 that means you can pay between $3 and $5.

Our catalog is distributed by people like you. We can send you a stack to leave in local stores, coffeshops, or clubs. This is vital to our distribution structure and if you could help it would be much appreciated.

You may wholesale zines and books at a 40% discount off the median price. A minimum wholesale order is $40 and two of each. Our website has a nifty feature to calculate wholesale orders.

OUR BOOKS ARE DISTRIBUTED BY INDEPENDENT PUBLISHER'S GROUP (IPG).

Over the last 16 years we've published 13 records, 75 books, 49 zines, and seven videos. The records are out of print, but we'll be publishing plenty of new zines and books over the next year.

WHITE ELEPHANTS are the odd, old, and discarded things that end up at yard sales and flea markets—and Katie Haegele loves them all. Well, an awful lot of them, anyway. She lives a few blocks from the house she grew up in, and every summer she and her mother scour the neighborhood tag sales, looking for treasure. In this unusual, touching memoir, she chronicles the places they go and the things they find there, describing every detail in her singular, charming voice. In the end she finds more than just ugly table lamps and frilly aprons, ultimately discovering a real friendship with her mother, a deeper connection to her father, whose death left a hole in her life—and even a bit of romance.

HURT is Portland activist Kristian Williams' collection of articles and interviews on the history, psychology, and current state of torture in democratic societies. Williams, author of OUR ENEMIES IN BLUE and AMERICAN METHODS: TORTURE AND THE LOGIC OF DOMINATION, has pulled together a vast and comprehensive resource on this abominable act. Articles include David Cunningham's "Prisons, Torture, and Imperialism," a piece on the anarchist perspective taken from comments at the 2008 Anarchist Bookfair in San Francisco, and a great essay on writing about torture, among many others. This sober 64-page document is a heavy piece of work—dark, informative, and oft times harrowing. But it's also about working hard to enact change. As Williams says in the Gyoza Nehez interview, "At the outset, I think it's more important to have a sense of hope, that things can be different and through our actions we can contribute to that change. The joy comes later, from struggle itself as much as from victory." HURT is a how-to manual on fighting and understanding torture—a piece of the struggle itself.
